About the Authors

Dr Pervinder Bhogal trained at Royal Free and University College London Medical School and graduated in 2004. After University he passed his MRCS Exam and is currently studying for a Masters Degree in Medical Education. He entered Radiology training in 2007 and passed his FRCR Part 1 on the first attempt.

Thomas Conner gained a 1st Class Honours degree in Anatomy and Developmental Biology and graduated from University College London in 2004. He is currently a Radiology Registrar on the Royal Free Hospital radiology rotation. He is interested in academic radiology.

Gaurang Bhatnagar is a radiology registrar on the Peninsula training scheme. He moved to the South West, in 2008 after completing basic surgical training in London. A firm believer in the statement that "he's a doctor not a physicist" (Dr Leonard 'Bones' McCoy, Star Trek) he found question books such as this one the ideal way to revise for the FRCR Part I.

Harbir Sidhu graduated from University College London Medical School in 2004. After undertaking basic surgical training in the Yorkshire deanery, he moved to the Southwest. He is currently working in the Peninsula training scheme as a Radiology Registrar.

Anmol Malhotra (Editor) completed his radiology training at Barts and the London NHS Trust (BLT) in February 2005, and after a brief period as an observer in MRI imaging at Memorial Slone Kettering, New York, Anmol returned to a Locum Consultant position at BLT.
